

What is Domestic Violence and Why Victims Don't Leave: Intimate Partner Violence and Barriers to Leaving

OCTOBER 2022

PRESENTERS:

Carolina Najera-Magana, MS, LMFT

Clinical Director, Domestic Violence Solutions

Veronica Cubillo

Director of Programs and Client Services, Domestic Violence Solutions

Victims of domestic violence often have to make difficult decisions that affect their own well-being and that of their children. They face many challenges when making those decisions. This training will help participants gain knowledge of the dynamics of intimate partner violence and the barriers to leaving an abusive relationship.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- Examine the dynamics of domestic violence and its effects on family members
- Review the barriers survivors face in leaving an abusive relationship

Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital Psychiatry and Addiction Medicine Department invites you to virtually attend its October 2022 presentation.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2022

Noon to 1:30 p.m.
No meals or breaks provided.

CAROLINA NAJERA-MAGANA is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and is the Clinical Director at Domestic Violence Solutions (DVS). She has been with DVS for 11 years. Carolina earned her bachelor's at UC Santa Barbara and her master's at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. She has worked with domestic violence victims since 2004, when she began as a trainee at DVS. During her career, she has worked with victims and perpetrators of domestic violence, persistent and severe mentally ill clients, dual diagnosis clients and sexually-offending teens.

VERONICA CUBILLO is the Director of Programs and Client Services at Domestic Violence Solutions. She has worked with DVS for six years. During her time at DVS, Veronica has gained much skill and experience working with domestic violence survivors and youth. Prior to working with DVS, she completed her internship hours at the Chatsworth Superior Court assisting victims of domestic violence who were petitioning for restraining orders. During her career, Veronica has supported many families and individuals that have either left or remained in domestic violence situations.
